Dear Padre

How are the Creeds different?

Other than their slightly different wording, what is the difference between the Nicene and Apostles' Creeds?
 Kathleen

Dear Kathleen,

When adults are baptized in the Roman Catholic Church, they are asked a threefold question: "Do you believe in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit?" Both the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds are based on the fundamental belief in the Holy Trinity.

The Apostles' Creed as a statement of faith probably comes from a time shortly after the apostles. Based on the faith of the apostles, this Creed has a threefold division that expresses belief in God as Father, God as Son, and God as Holy Spirit - it's a short summary of our basic beliefs as Catholics.

The Nicene Creed takes its name from the Council of Nicea (AD325). This council upheld the Church's belief in the full divinity of the Son, who was defined as "one in being with the Father."

The Nicene Creed, which is the Creed we recite at Mass today, most likely came from the Church of Constantinople in the later fourth century. By then the section on belief in Jesus was expanded to show the Son's equality with the Father. Likewise, the section on the Holy Spirit was expanded and included belief in the work of the Spirit, the Church, baptism, the resurrection of the dead, and everlasting life.

When we pray either of these ancient Creeds, we unite with a long line of believers who professed the same faith.

The Country Pantry

Next Saturday, November 13th, the Boy Scouts will be conducting their annual Food Drive. They ask that you place your canned or non-perishable food items in a plastic bag, which they have already distributed, and place it outside your door visible from the street. If you did not receive a Boy Scout bag, you can use a regular plastic grocery bag. Please have it outside by 9 AM for collection. If you are not going to be home or miss the pickup, you may bring it here to St. Mary's and place it in our food box. This food drive is important to the Pantry as it is the largest single collection that we receive.

We ask you to be generous and support the Boy Scouts in their endeavor to relieve hunger here in the Clinton-Clark Mills-Westmoreland area. God bless!

Altar Server Training

St. Mary's Church will be holding an Altar Server Training session Saturday, November 20. Training will be in the church from 11 - 11:45 AM. All students in 4th, 5th and 6th grades are welcome to attend.

Safe Environment Program Recertification Enters it's 2nd Year!

In 2010 we recognize the 7th anniversary of the Safe Environment's Child and Youth Protection Program. We have made much progress together in our efforts to create and maintain safe environments for our children and youth.

In keeping with our Child & Youth Protection Policy we are rechecking criminal backgrounds on all clergy, all religious, all employees and any volunteer whose ministry brings them into contact with children and youth.

If you originally trained in the VIRTUS "Protecting God's Children" Adult Awareness in 2005, you are required to attend a "Keeping the Promise Alive" (KPA) refresher session this year. These sessions are approximately one and a half hours in length.

Registration: Please go to www.syrdio.org and click on: Recertification Training Schedule -- Register according to the instructions per session! (Recertification registration is not currently available on-line at VIRTUS.org).

Not sure you're due to recertify? For more information please contact your Site Coordinator, Carm Foster at 853-8513 (cfoster12@verizon.net).
