A Family Perspective

Just as the apostles in today's gospel were amazed at the power of Jesus, so our children are amazed at our lack of fear of dark rooms or monsters in closets or under beds. As the apostles depended on Jesus, children depend on us to restore quiet to their lives. Getting out of bed at night to quiet a child's fears is the stuff of holiness.

Country Pantry

We are still collecting selected items for our Kids Paks, which will be distributed on Tuesday, June 30. Items include individual pudding cups (4 to a pack) canned Deviled Ham, Peanut Butter, Nutella and Tuna Salad Snack packs (includes can of salad and crackers). Without school lunches, it is often a struggle for Moms to keep those ravenous appetites satisfied during summer vacation. Can you help by purchasing some of these items? Our Moms and kids will be most grateful.

Hunger never takes a vacation! God bless.

Faith Formation

In the first reading, God is reminding Job to put his trust in God. When your life seems to be upset by storms, are you able to remember that "God is in charge?"

Registration for Faith Formation will begin in mid-July. If you are new to the parish or have a 1st grader starting classes this year please contact Mary Lou Lauchert at 853-7631 or email faithformation@stmarys-clinton.com. Every year I have a need for new catechists, if this ministry interests you please contact Mary Lou for more information.

We will feature Lemonade on the Lawn after 10:30 Mass on the 2nd and 4th Sundays during the summer months. Sign up to host on the bulletin board in the family corner!

Parish Council Elections This Sunday
Selection of new Parish Council members will be made at the 10:30 AM Mass this Sunday. Thank you to all who put their name in for consideration.

Ice Cream Social This Sunday

We will be having our annual Ice Cream Social this Sunday after the 10:30 AM Mass in the Parish Center parking lot (if sunny) or the hallway (if rainy). Please stop by after Mass and make your favorite "sundae" -- we will have all the toppings. Remember, it's also Father's Day - what a great way for Dad to get some ice cream and socialize at the same time. See you after the 10:30 AM Mass.

Rosary Making Class

We will be having another Rosary making class this Tuesday, June 23, 6:30 PM, in the Parish Center. Come and learn how to make a corded or beaded rosary which we are sending to the missions and to our military overseas. All supplies and instructions will be provided. The rosaries are very easy to learn and very relaxing. We hope to see you on Tues-

Good News!

June 21, 2015
TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)
Jb 38:1, 8-11 / 2 Cor 5:14-17 / Mk 4:35-41

My brother, sister, and I learned to sail when we were young. Of all the lessons we had, the one I remember nearly verbatim was "Signs of an Approaching Storm." I can reel off the list as though it were yesterday: dark, low, fast-moving clouds, a sudden shift in wind direction and velocity, a sudden change in temperature.

To this day, when I experience any of these things, I close windows and make sure everything is inside. I think the apostles who were seasoned fishermen must have had similar training, and I have often wondered why they just didn't make for shore when they noticed the signs. But then I remember that some storms move in very quickly and, if you are in the middle of the sea, you can't make it to shore easily. The apostles may have decided to ride it out and then realized they could not.

It must have struck the apostles as odd that Jesus was peacefully asleep while they battled rising water and fierce wind. They were afraid of losing their lives. When they woke Jesus up, Scripture says that he "rebuked" the wind and the sea. The same word is used when Jesus casts out demons. The result is peace—at least on the sea or in the person who is possessed.

But for the disciples and for us, the act inspires awe and not a little anxiety: "Who then is this?" The answer unfolds for us throughout the Gospels. Jesus is Lord over the wind and sea, over all creation, and over us as well. In storm or calm, he brings his peace and shows us God's glory.
