Country Pantry

Last Tuesday was the first distribution of Kid's Paks. The kids were excited to get their very own bag of kid-friendly foods. Along with the Kid's Paks, we were able to purchase additional items with your generous financial donations. These included hot dogs and rolls, cheese, milk and ice cream coupons. In cooperation with Tony's Pizza, each child also received a kid-sized sub. Due to a generous donation from the Kiwanis Club, we were able to provide each child with an age appropriate book. Summer is no vacation for hungry kids and thanks to your help, the Country Pantry is doing it's part to make it a real vacation. Thank you!

We will also be distributing Kid's Paks in July and August. For those months we are collecting macaroni and cheese, chicken noodle soup, kid-friendly cereal and powdered drink mixes.

Attention Gardeners

The flowers have been planted. Please consider donating some time to water and weed our gardens to keep them looking beautiful and blooming longer. A sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board in the back of the church. Any questions, call Terry Howard at 853-2886. Thank you!

A Family Perspective

Just like the seventy-two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.

Parent is concerned about kids who have fallen away

I raised my children in the faith, but two of them left the Church to embrace another denomination, and two others, although still Catholic, have not committed to regular church attendance. I worry about their salvation.

Your experience is not unknown to many Catholic parents. I'm sure my own mother could carry on a good conversation with you about her concern for the faith life of her children.

The journey of faith has many paths. An individual may think more deeply about the meaning of life or find religion after a momentous experience or in the process of gathering and sharing with a community in which they find support, clarity, or rituals that express their beliefs, or guidelines for living morally.

For those of us who grew up believing, chances are we were not introduced to religion through logic. Children are brought to church long before they are aware of their need for God. They learn doctrine and attend worship before questions of faith and religion form within them. Passing on the faith is a great gift that parents give, and it will serve these young people well. Your children have tools to help them find their way, and God continues to be with them. Follow the example of St. Monica, and pray for them. Trust this one to God, and continue to give good example.
