Mission Appeal This Weekend

The annual Mission Appeal for the Brothers of the Christian Schools will be held this weekend. The Brothers work in 81 countries where their ministries teach over one million students. The generosity of our parishioners will go directly to help poor students receive an education (and thus, hope for their future) that they would otherwise not be able to attain. Please welcome Brother Joseph Jozwiak, FSC who is the President at Christian Brothers Academy here in Syracuse. Thank you for your generosity!

Country Pantry

Tuesday, July 25, is our next distribution of Kid's Paks. We are in need of individual packs of juice boxes, puddings and fruit, also Spaghetti's and canned pastas. Monetary donations are always welcome so that we can purchase additional items such as cheese, bologna/hot dogs, fresh fruit and bread. Thank you for helping in our effort to satisfy our hungry kids during summer vacation. Hunger never takes a vacation!

Picnic Update

We regret to inform you that there is NOT enough interest to resume the Annual Church Picnic. A huge thank you to all who took time to fill out and return the survey. We are brain-storming to come up with an event that will get all of our parishioners together. If you have any suggestions, please pass it on to one of our Hearts & Hands members.

Happy Summer! Hearts & Hands

A Family Perspective

The stress and anxieties of family life are like "thorns which choke off" any opportunity to reflect on God's presence in our lives. Notice in today's gospel Jesus "left the house" so He could connect with His Father. Take five minutes each day to appreciate God walking with you.

Dear Padre

JULY 16, 2017

Why does the Bible have two creation stories?

Scholars believe these stories (Genesis 1—3) were written by two authors during different times and situations in Jewish history. The first story focuses on the creation of the universe; the second emphasizes the creation of man and woman.

The creation account that appears first in the Bible (Genesis 1:1—2:4a) was written six centuries before the birth of Christ by a priest wanting to reaffirm for the Jews that only one God is the all-powerful creator of all that exists. At that time, a belief in several powerful, warring gods was common in the cultures surrounding Judaism.

The story that appears later in the Bible (Genesis 2:4b—3:24) was actually written earlier—four centuries earlier—by a sage in the court of King David. It affirmed that human beings have an inherent dignity and a responsibility to live within boundaries. They must obey God, a rule that applies to kings as well.

Both accounts contain the closely held beliefs regarding human dignity (made in God's image and likeness) and responsibility (care for the earth as God would care for it) that are core to the Christian faith. At their heart they teach us through symbol and story about that God who is partially knowable, the source of life and hope amid the chaos and loss that beset every generation.
